

ALL ARE NOT CLOSED

Tron's Pool Room Wide Open and Doing a Big Business.

Ollie Lanham's Dive-Poker Joints Are Running-Barney Conroy's Objection-Political Notes.

The lull in the gambling business was very percepible all day yesterday, and, in fact, last night there was not the usual vigor in the trade which has, for some time, characterized - it. The smaller games of "craps" and poker were going, but the more plutocratic strongholds were closed in obedience to the supplications of the little Mayor. This is a serious state of affairs, as many men are thrown out of work in consequence, and, doubtless, wives and children will feel the temporary stringency. "Billy" Tron's upstairs game is closed but the pool rooms in the rear of the saloon are still in full blast. In this case Mr. Tron evidently thinks he has made sufficient concession, and, in fact, probably deserves great credit for even closing his "craps joint" at this time. Just exactly what discrimination can be made between the two games that would justify the closing of one and keeping the other open, even in the mind of a gambler, is not plain at a glance. For the first time in a long while appears an inconsistency in Mr. Tron's method, which has generally been straight-out gambling in its every phase, and no apologies, even to the Mayor. The thought naturally comes as to what kind of a Mayor or Board of Safely could be appeased or satso long as a gambler closed one of his shops, or one of his games. It seems to be about the same logic as bofed a big hole for the cat and a little one close by for the kitten, but so long as Mayor Sullivan is satisfied what business is it of the people? The "bones" are still rattling at Gus Rahke's butcher shop, while poker is still at its old stands, spite of the coming elecand general misapprehensions all along the line. Some of the shops which do not employ large forces of helpers, cappers, street solicitors, etc., took no notice of the "big medicine talk," or any other understanding arrived at by Chief Tron and the Board of Safety, but kept right on. The rumor has been circulated to the effect that Tron had "worked" his people in the deal, and was trying to scare a few out of the business. When Billy Tron says 'close down,'" said one gentleman of the turf, last night, we don't need no suggestions from Buskirk." This sentiment, however, is not so prevalent. There are a few who will gamble, no matter what comes, even on the word of the invincible Tron, until nothing except the actual appearance of the patrol wagon at their doors will stop them. This vehicle has come to be as tardy in its movements as the United States Supreme Court, and so the smaller games go on.

Lanham Kick. Over the Traces. Ollie Lanham, the proprietor of a gambling room over Hier's North New Jerseystreet saloon, is exceeding wroth at what he terms a sly scheme on the part of "Billy' Tron to "do" the balance of the fraternity. Lanham vows that the other proprietors are at liberty to close their places if they desire, but his will be found open at the

"D-d if Bill Tron shall get the best of me," quoth Mr. Lanham, yesterday; "for every body knows this closing scheme is a deal of his own to work the rest of us out. He'll keep closed for two or three days. and then open up his game and fleece the crowd, while we sit down and suck our thambs. I'll keep my game open." Democratic Letter to Saloon Keepers.

The Democratic committee sent out circular to saloon keepers yesterday advising them to vote against Mr. Denny because he has come out openly and says he will enforce the laws if elected Mayor. The letter is as follows:

However strange it may seem, nevertheless it is true, that occasionally we find a saloon man that doesn't know just exactly who he will support for Mayor; that he is not just quite certain who is the best man for Mayor. For the benefit of all such doubtful saloon men, we clip the fol lowing from the News of 1889, when Caleb 8 Denny was Mayor. We think any intelligent saloon man can draw a conclusion.

Then follows the court record of Charles Poister et al. and this conclusion. Under Denny's administration many wellknown saloon keepers were given workhouse sentences by him as Mayor. A more outrageous injustice was never perpetrated upon citizens. Spies were put out and many thousands of dollars were taken from the saloon men of this city during Denny's administration. A vote for him again means the same old regime over. He openiv says: "If elected Mayor I will enforce all the laws to the letter." Under the new charter his power is absolute. With Denny Mayor and the Council Republican a screen ordinance will be passed.

It is the duty of every saloon man to use every possible means honorable to defeat Cale It will take every energy possible to defeat Denny. His election means the persecution, prosecution and destruction of the saloon busi-

Wanted a Piece of the Money. There has been some dissatisfaction among the Democratio heelers on West Washington street, near the river bridge, because all the beer money furnished by Chairman Taggart for the west end of town had gone to Jake Scholl. Barney Conroy, the omnipresent Democratic boss in that end of the city, was in high indignation, and threatened to bolt the ticket. He planned to have an indignation meeting at 223 West Washington street. The plan had its desired effect, and Chairman Taggert gave Barney enough money to buy a keg of beer for the boys. "Stud" Poker Is Running. Some of the gambling houses have received a further sip from the Sullivan machine that they can run "stud" poker games, if they go about it quietly. In pursuance of this tip some of the houses opened with stud-poker games last night, intending to run them quietly until election day and then, if Sullivan should be reelected, turn loose again with their crap tables and their faro banks. The stud games were running over the Drum saloon, on the Circle, last night, and had a good crowd of sports in attendance.

Enthusiastic South-Side Republicans. The Republicans of the one-hundredand-fortieth precinct held a very large meeting last night on Shelby street, near Willow. Will Kessler, Mr. Kaiser, candidate for Council in the ward, and Secretary Joyce, of the city committee, made short addresses. The Republicans in the ward are very enthusiastic and confident of success. Eighteen men were appointed to keep tab on each block of the precinct to see that the Democratic committee does not bring in any floaters just before elec-

HAUGHVILLE TRUSTEES.

Number of Small Bills Allowed-Electric Lights Accepted.

The trustees of Haughville characterized their regular meeting, last night, by "hustling" through their business. Trustee Hungate was absent. The allowing of small bills was first in order. The bill of the Sentinel Printing Company for the advertising of bids for the improvement of Highland and Warmen avenues was allowed. The burial of two dogs by citizens cost the town $1, and it was suggested that dogs and other animals be induced to expire outside the town corporation, as the treasury was very low. For the typewriting of the screen nance a bill of 75 cents allowed. A bill was presented by the Indianapolis Light and Power Company for the furnishing of twenty-two lights for twenty-five days in July and the full month of August. The bill, amounting to $188.25 for July and $165 for August, was ordered paid. A resolution of approval of the twenty-two lights and apparatus furnished by this company on sixty days' trial was passed, and the lights and apparatus were ordered accepted as per contract. Some time ago the board ordered fifty-five loads of gravel to be distributed around the different streets under the supervision of Marshal Harmon, The contractor in the meanwhile placed the gravel without the supervision of the marshal, and last night presented his bill. Marshal Harmon said that he did not know if the contract had been carried out, and the board then laid the bill over until next meeting. Jos. Keating furnished seven meals to prisoners, and was allowed $1.75 therefore.

F. B. Peale, representing the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, asked the board to grant this company permission to raise such poles as the company may need on the road immediately west of the asylum. The request was granted. Permission was given the town to place fire alarm and police wires on these poles without any cost to the town. A petition signed by a number of Haughville's largest taxpayers induced the board to order an electric light placed at the crossing of King and Michigan streets. Rebates for the amount of the unexpired time of all peddlers' licenses were ordered paid. A number of citizens have for some time been working to have the connection of North and South Holmes avenue improved. There is a dispute between the railroad companies and the town as to which this land belongs to. The board said that if these citizens would get an abstract for the land at a cost not exceeding $10 the town would bear the cost of the abstract and order the improvement. The board then adjourned until a special meeting Wednesday night,

ENCAMPMENT ECHOES.

Material of the Citizens' Executive Board Sold at Auction.

The executive board of the G. A. R. encampment held an auction sale yesterday, at the Commercial Club Building, at about thirty buyers were present. There was a variety of goods sold, which the committee had purchased for encampment purposes. The proceeds of the sale amounted to about $200, of which $118 was received on the sale of office furniture. The original cost of the equipments was $600. Among the articles was fifty-three dozen lanterns, a lot of wash-basins, two dozen saddle-bhankets and about the same number of chairs. Some of the articles sold at marvelously low figures, while others brought fair prices. There are nearly four thousand yards of awning left which the committee will sell cheap. The goods cost $200. The committee is working hard on the books and expects to make a financial report on Monday next, though the report may not be complete. Ladies' Board Complimented, Congratulations from abroad are constantly being received by Mrs. Wulschner on the entertainment of the women of pa-

Council Rushes Through the Year's Most Important Measure.

UNDER THE GAG RULE

Tax Levy Fixed and General Appropriations Made-Given No Consideration in the Committee.

Of all the outrages upon parliamentary decency perpetrated by the present Democratic Council the climax was reached yesterday morning at the special session called for the purpose of passing the ordinance fixing the tax levy and the general appropriation ordinance. The Democrate not only passed the ordinances as they desired, but, by their infamous application of the gag rule, prevented the least criticism of their action by the Republican members upon the floor. They overstepped the bounds of decency to the extent of shutting the months of the Republicans so effectually as to forbid them even the right to explain their votes. Though in the majority, and assured of the success of any measure they chose to introduce, the Democratic members of the Council, led by Rassmann and backed by President One lady asserts that she had been at seven previous conventions, and that the Murphy, who ruled with the iron hand of a arrangements were the most complete and czar, effectually checked the exposure of satisfactory of any she yet attended, which is certainly saying much for the ladies' their motives.

A few minutes after 10 o'clock President Murphy and the Democratic members of the Council filed into the room from a caucus which they have been holding somewhere in the building and took their seats. President Murphy ascended to his desk and rapped the Council to order. It was evident that he was looking for a stormy meeting, for when his gavel descended upon the desk it seemed that a whole heaven of thunder had been turned loose in the Council chamber. The call of the roll showed every member present except Messrs. Costello and Linu, and the former of these came in later. Councilman P. J. Ryan acted as reading clerk, and read the call for the special meeting. "Any Republican names to that?" asked "Don't need any," was the tart reply by

Mr. Rassmann. The call of the order of business was run through with by President Murphy with astonishing velocity, and when he asked for reports from the finance committee Mr. Rassmann handed up the report of the committee recommending the passage of the ordinance fixing the tax levy at 60 cents. The previous question was moved and effectually shut off debate. The previous question was called for by a strict party vote, with the exception of Mr. White, who alone among all the Democrats on the floor did not approve of the highhanded methods adopted by the majority. The report of the committee was then concurred in by a strict party vote of 15 to 5. The finance committee handed up the general appropriation ordinance, and Mr. Rassmann immediately moved the second reading of this ordinance, its engrossment and the previous question upon it. In his unseemly hurry he so far forgot himself as to embody the three motions in one, but afterwards separated them. The Republicans were fully aware that they were to be permitted to say not a word; nevertheless they entered a vigorous protest to the application of the gag. When Mr. Rassmann moved the previous question upon the general appropriation ordinance, Mr. Gasper expressed his views upon the methods taken to shut off debate.

"I think the calling of the previous question upon this ordinance is a mean and cowardly way to rush it through this body," he said. "It makes no difference what you may think. Call the roll," answered President Murphy, very sharply. Under Mr. Rassmann's gag tactics the ordinance was then read the second time and engrossed by a strict party vote, with the exception of Mr. White, who again voted with the Republicans, and Mr. Cooper, who was absent from the room and did not vote. The ordinance was then passed to the third reading and put upon its passage; the gag was again applied by the previous question, and it was sent through by a party vote. The appropriation ordinance is in every particular a compliance with the recommendations of the controller.

After the general appropriation ordinance was disposed of the tax levy was called up and it was also shot through by a party vote under the gag. Mr. Cooper had the temerity to ask that he be allowed to explain his vote. "The previous question is called for," replied President Murphy, as he turned the search light sparkling on his bosom full upon Mr. Cooper. "Well, I would like to have an opportunity to explain a few of these discrepances," Mr. Cooper ventured to reply.

"Can't do it under the previous question, Call the roll." The ordinance went through by a party vote, as did everything else at yesterday's session.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Assessment Rolls for Various Street Im-

The session of the Board of Public Works was very brief yesterday morning. The first person to come before them was Horace E. Smith, who wished the board to delay the improvement of Columbia avenue, north of the Belt railroad. The improvement was petitioned for last spring. and, as it was not done at that time, the property owners desire that it be delayed till next spring. The board took no action. Mr. Mercer, the contractor who is building the East-street sawer, said that he was cramped for funds, and a number of the property owners were anxious to pay their portion of the assessment now, before the work was completed. He wanted to know, from the board, if there was any objection to their paying the amounts now. He was informed that the board had nothing to do with that. The work will be completed in about four weeks.

The assessment rolls were received from the following improvements: Delaware street, Washington to Massachusetts avenue, $31,710.64. Shelby street, first alley south of Coburn to Pleasant run. $37,969.63. Alabama street, Seventh to Tenth, $23.

notified that the contract called for all asphalt and the work could not be approved till this bowidered strip was removed and replaced with asphalt. The Central Union Telephone Company was notified that if they did not, within twenty-four hours, remove a pole on Shelby street, near Virginia avenue, the board would have it removed by the city at the

Miss Mattie Christie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Christie, will be married to Mr. Edward Hubert Trotter this evening at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Trotter will be home after Oct. 1 to their friends at Morristown, Tenn. The marriage of Miss Mary Delaney and Mr. Charles Goth took place Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kregelo, in the presence of the family and a very few friends. Rev. J. A. Rondtbaler performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Goth will go to housekeeping. Mrs. H. C. Sickels entertained the Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon at her home, 1085 North Illinois street. Miss Holliday gave the news from Persia and Miss Sickles read a paper on "The Work of the Young Woman's Christian Association in the Cards are out announcing the coming wedding of Miss Maggie O'Mara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Mara, of this city, for Oct. 4. Miss O'Mara is well known in Indianapolis society. Her father, J. O'Mara, has been in the employ of the American Express Company for many years in this city. The groom is Mr. D. M. Moroney, a well-known business man and druggist of Maxwell, Ind. BIELER-HENLEY.

The most notable event of the week was the marriage of Miss Effie Henley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Henley, and Mr. Charles Louis Bieler, which was celebrated last evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Centralavenue M. E. Church. The handsome edifice was filled with a large and fashionable gathering of friends. Mr. Robert A. Newland played varied selections on the organ until the appointed hour, when the wedding march announced the arrival of the bridal party. The ushers were Messrs. Vernon Griffith, Edward Bingham, Arthur Smith, Thomas Alford, Oliver A. Kieley and John McCullough, and two flower maids, Misses May Henley and Ethel Smith, preceded, then followed the maid of honor, Miss Bessie Marie West, and the bride with her father. The groom and his best man, Mr. Charles Iliff, met them at the altar, where the ceremony was pronounced Rev. Henry A. Buchtel, D. pastor of the church. The altar was hidden with palms, ferns and a mass of goldenrod. The bride worea magnificent gown of heavy corded white silk, trimmed with ostrich feathers. Her veil completely enveloped her figure and fell to the hem of her long train. She carried a book, "The Marriage Vow," clasped about three rose buds. Miss West wore a charmingly dainty gown of white mull over white silk, trimmed with lace and narrow ribbons, and carried, folded in her arms, a mass of long-stemmed white roses. The flower maids were white embroidered mull gowns, and carried artistic baskets filled with pink roses. Following the impressive ceremony at the church, an informal reception was given at the family residence, No. 308 College avenue. To this only the bridal party and a few relatives and friends were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Henley were assisted in entertaining and dispensing their hospitalities by Mrs. George H. West and Mrs. W. H. Smith. The house was tastefully decorated with goldenrod and asters, combined with maidenhair ferns, and vines about the mantels and palms and roses throughout the rooms. The polished table in the dining room was covered with a lace cloth and in the center was a basket of white rose bads. The gitts from the bride and card case mounted in silver, to the flower maids lace pins and to the ushers scarf pins. They were also the recipients of numerous bandsome presents from friends here and elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Bieler left last evening for a wedding trip and when they return they will go to housekeeping in their own new home, No. 41 Woodruff Place, and will receive their friends after Nov. 15. The guests from abroad were Dr. and Mrs. Morris Drake, sister of the bride, from Shelbyville, and Miss Barry, of Georgia. RICHIE-PERRY.

A wedding which was simple and in exquisite taste occurred yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Perry, on North Alabama street. Rev. Joseph S. Jenckes performed the ceremony which united their only daughter, Miss Ida M. Perry, and Mr. Omar C. Ritchie, of Anderson, a brother of Mrs. J. W. Hess. The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin, made severely simple, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The room in which the ceremony was pronounced was entirely in green and white. The floor was covered with white, and a profusion of palms and ferns were gracefully arranged in the corners and about the mantel, while bowls and vases filled with white roses and asters were placed here and there. In one room, where lemonade was dispensed, palms, ferns and scarlet flowers were used. The ceremony, at high noon, was followed by a breakfast. The dining room was all in pink and green, vines encircled the chandelier, and over the bride's table maiden hair fern and Duchess of Alpany roses were strewn. Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie left in the afternoon for Madison. Cincinnati and other places for a two weeks' visit, and upon their return they will be at home after Nov. lat their residence in Anderson. Among the guests from out of town were Mrs. Ralph St. J. Perry, of Lincoln, Neb.; Miss Ward, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Hess, of Columbus; Mrs. Sadler, of Shelbyville, and Mrs. Quick, of Columbus. There were only a very few friends at the wedding. STANTON-HITZ.

Yesterday, at noon, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hitz, No. 1120 North Meridian street, a very pretty wedding took place. The bride was their daughter, Miss Nellie Esther Hitz, and the groom was Mr. Robert Stanton, of Madison. The wedding party, which included the relatives and a few intimate friends, was mostly from Madison, which was the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Hitz. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Stanton, of Pittsburg, Pa., a brother of the groom. The bride and groom stood before the broad window in the parlor, and the lace draperies, festooned with smilax and with palms at either side, made a graceful setting. On a small table at side was a large bowl white asters. Miss Clara Borth played the wedding march as they entered the parlor unattended. The bride wore a simply fashioned gown of silk muslin and carried a bunch of white roses. After the congratulations had been given a wedding breakfast was served, the guests being seated at small tables, arranged about the central table where the bride and groom sat. The bride's table was decorated with a large bowl of pink roses and bands of smilax and roses to each corner. An behind barred doors all afternoon. About orchestra in an upper hall played during

A Thrilling Story Most Plainly and Graphically Told.

Did You Ever Read Anything of Greater Interest.

The following communication from Mrs. Minnie Miller, who resides at 5 Guthrie street, Fort Wayne, Ind., explains itself: "For many years I was troubled with indigestion and constipation. Three years ago I became so weak and nervous that I was a complete physical wreck. I had dizzy spells, palpitation of the heart and numbness of my hands and feet. "These attacks came often and each time worse. My life was a burden to me and a trouble and werry to all my friends. I expected to die. At times I thought I should lose my mind. My stomach was in such a condition that I could eat nothing but a very little of the lightest kind of food. Sleep was impossible. Every little noise would startle me and I would feel faint. "No one can imagine the agony I suffered but those who are afflicted with nervousness. I cannot describe the feeling in half its horrors. "At last I saw Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised, and read the testimonials of cure of some of those who had been afflicted as I was, so I thought I would try it.

Wonderful to relate, the first pottle helped me se much that I had faith in it. I took two more bot, tles, and oh, I feel so much better. I can sleep soundly, and the nervous feeling has almost left me. I can eat with a good appetite, and have gained seven pounds.

"My friends say that I am looking so much better, and I know that I am feeling as they say I look. I tell everybody that the Nervura has done it. I cannot say enough for it, and I praise the Lord and thank this wonderful medicine for giving me relief.

"I am only too glad to recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to any one afflicted as I was, and I hope this testimonial will be the means of inducing many to use this marvelous remedy."

If you are a sufferer do not fail to get this medicine immediately from your druggist. It costs but $1, and is purely vegetable and harmless. Owing to its great strengthening and invigorating powers it is the best medicine possible to take. It is the prescription and discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, the most successful specialist in the cure of nervous and chronic diseases, and the doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.
